

490-
12th Sqdn

Major Whipple/ep/3440/6 Nov 61

V1-3

CS12

Squadron Emblem

9 NOV 1961

HQ USAF (AFPM-12-C)
Wash 25 DC

1. In accordance with your indorsement to ltr, Hq USAFA (CS21), 27 Sep 61, Subj: Organizational Emblems, request waiver be granted to par 4b(2)(f), AFR 900-3. Further request approval of attached emblem for wear by cadets of the 12th Squadron, 2nd Group, The Air Force Cadet Wing.

2. The significance of the design is explained as follows:

a. Polaris - the star represents the guiding light by which the cadet may attain the goal as a USAF officer.

b. Flying vehicle - the climb of the graduate into the deep USAF blue field representing his future career.

c. Checkerboard - the red, yellow, blue and gray are the colors of the four cadet classes. The red color is that of the present first class. Historically, the red will indicate the class in charge at the time that the squadron emblem was adopted.

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT:

WILLIAM H. MORPHY
Major, United States Air Force
Director of Administrative Services

1 Atch
Sq Emblem (dup)

COMMAND READING FILE