CADETS GLAD VACATION IS ALL OVER GLEEFULLY RETURN TO THEIR DORMITORY HOMES

Find Vacations Unacceptable and Call for Their Endings.

C2C Kenneth D. Wassenaar, his face laced with smiles, sighed luxuriously as his favorite hair stylist, Manuel Manzanares, removed the last traces of his long haired civilian hair-do. "Boy, Chaplain, you have no idea how glad I am to be back here at the Academy. I don't know why they bother us with vacations. We certainly don't need them. The whole time we're away all we want to do is get back. Sure, we get home cooking, but how can that compare with the glop they feed us at Mitchell Hall? You get tired, too, of having your mother make your bed. I love making beds, but at home you have to make believe you don't care if someone else does it. And there's no yelling back home. How do you know someone cares if they don't yell at you? And those freaks on the outside! They don't give a darn if your hair is long! What kind of excitement is there in long hair if no one cares whether you have it or not? Here, hair can be a big thing. You slowly let it get longer and longer, and then someone notices, and WHAM! What fun! It's dead out there. Then, too, outside there are girls. What a lousy drag. You take them here and there, because you're supposed to, but who pays? Not one of them ever offers to pick up the tab. When I go out with cadets we all go dutch. Another thing. We all go to church at home, but can we gripe? No. Of course not! At the Academy we all go, but afterwards we have hours of fun griping about it. What do all those civilians do for fun? I wish I knew! Turning to the other cadets waiting their turn for hair-styling, he said, "Right, fellows?" "Right!" They shouted in a happy smiling chorus.

In order to acquaint you with the ministers who will be resource leaders for the retreat 28-30 January 1972, here is a brief sketch of each. Dr. Charles Blair, originally from Oklahoma, came to Denver Calvary Temple in 1947. His background is Methodist although the program of Calvary Temple is completely inter-denominational. The church supports over 88 missionary families in 50 countries. Dr. Blair has preached crusades in South America, Japan, Hong Kong, Africa, Russia and leaves for India following the retreat. His weekly television program reaches over 100,000 viewers in the Rocky Mountain Region. Chaplain Charles Hudson is sponsored in the Air Force by the National Baptist Convention. Serving over 7 years as a navigator in SAC before entering the ministry, Chaplain Hudson is no newcomer to military duty. As a chaplain he served Lowry AFB, Denver, and Johnston Island in the South Pacific before coming to the Academy in March 1971. Chaplain Hudson graduated from Vanderbilt Divinity School and is a native of Nashville, Tennessee. His duties at the Academy are in the Community Center Chapel.

The Protestant Cadet Retreat for the spring semester will be held 28-30 January at Camp La Foret in the Black Forest. Dr. Charles Blair, pastor of Calvary Temple in Denver will join with Chaplain Charles Hudson of USAFA Community Center Chapel in leading worship and discussion. The retreat begins on Friday afternoon and extends to 1300 hours Sunday. Special films have been scheduled for the retreat in addition to a full program of opportunities for religious inspiration. Be sure and sign up for the retreat as soon as the rosters appear in squadron areas. The cost for cadets will be $3.00 with the balance being funded by the Protestant Cadet Chapel Fund.

SQUADRON & GROUP REPRESENTATIVES ASSIST PROTESTANT CHAPLAINS

This year for the first time, cadets have been called upon to serve as Group and Squadron representatives in the Protestant Cadet Chaplain Program. Their purpose is to represent the concerns and interests of their individual squadrons and groups and to assist the Chaplains and Chapel NCO's in the overall religious program planning and implementation. Chaplain Robert L. Browning, the OIC of the "Reps" as they are known, reports that their duties include the gathering and the passing on of information to their squadrons regarding the chapel program activities and special program needs, distribution of the COP (alternating with the Catholic Reps), and serving as a channel for feedback from the squadrons and groups concerning chapel program and needs to the Cadet Chaplains. The "Reps" met with the Protestant Religious Council on 16 November for a dinner and planning meeting. Two additional joint meetings are planned this semester including an overnight planning retreat at the Ponderosa. Serving as group representatives are: 1st Group-C1C John B. Slade Jr; 2nd Group-C1C Kenneth C. Stoehrman; 3rd Group-C1C Ronald E. Richards; 4th Group-C1C William H. Keeler. Squadron Represent-

EX-PLAYBOY OF THE MONTH

CHAPLAIN RAYFIELD D. HELMAN, 1876 -

"Did you notice they called me the EX-Playboy of the Month? My wife made them put that in. I knew I'd have to get the award sometime, because we're running out of fantastically attractive people. You know, beauty has been a curse I've had to live with all my life. Yes, I said curse! You think it's easy to have people always staring at you, their eyes covered with a dull glaze of envy? Do you think its easy to know that all people see you as is a sex symbol? I've got a beautiful soul, too, who sees that? Boy, I'm tired of it. When I was in Italy, I was black and blue for months because of women rushing over to pinch me and breathing phrases like "bellissimo bambino," or "grrrrrr." I've got a soul! Look at it."
