SEPTEMBER 1974

Hey, 78's a Heck of a Class!!!

(Michael M.)

Well, the SUMMERS (Victor B.) DUNN (Dan C.) and our STRONG (Gordon R.) doolie class STACKS (Trevor J.) up with the best. BCT is not a GRANDE (Salvatore F., III) BALL (Thomas A.)! But from the moment these ABLE (Marc L.), QUICK (William T.) and WISE (William R. Jr.) YOUNG (Chip L.) HAWKS (Ervin L., II) came through the DORR (Robert M.), we knew they WOOD (Steven G.) BRAKE (Jeffrey D.) old MARKS (Charles F.) of excellence. They are KEENER (Don A.), MOORE (Stephen J.) CRISP (Stanley M.), SLICK (Steven H.) as SNOW (Arthur L.), and may WELLS (Lawrence L.) RANK (Kevin A.) FURST (Timothy M.) in the Academy's glorious STORIE (Gary A.). We have seen them MARCH (Bruce H.) through MUDD (Joseph R., Jr.), FORD (Wayne A.) the SWIFT (Mark S.) WATERS (David B.) of FLOODING (Christopher E.) BROOKS (Jeffrey A.), and then GOE (Walther K.) through KLUMPS (Joseph E.) of WOODY (Bill A.) BUSHES (G.J. and J.D.) on KNOLLS (George B.) and HILLS (G.S. and J.A.). They can COPE (Terry W.)!! They are never SHOOK (Richard A., Jr.) or in FRYT (Mitchell R.). In SHORT (Alfred L.W., Jr.), this class HADAWAY (William S., III) of ringing the BELL (Thomas S.) with us in the CHAPPELL (Mark S.).

Now you face the academic year. Can you KINDL (Craig W.) the SPARKS (David L.) to make it? Can you stand while GRIMME (Joseph C.) upper classmen BRAY (Timothy S.) at you and not HOLLERBACH (Lynn M.)? Can you PARROTT (John E.) back your knowledge, SCHOW (Kenneth C., Jr.) your best MANNERS (Roy B.) and put your HATAWAY (Thomas B.) just right? The STARK (Wesley R.) question is, "Can you DALY (Patrick R.) get in GIER (Glenn R.) whether things are WRIGHT (M.A. and R.M.) or at LOWE (Lon D.) ebb?" With a LITTLE (Robert C.) bit of LUCK (Timothy W.) you WILL (Brian D.). Don't SINK (Jerry T.) into GROSS (Robert A.) BLACK (Daniel M.) and GRAY (R.O., P.W., and S.A.) moods. Keep your eyes on the ROSE PINK (Keith R.) RAY (James E.) of LIGHT (Kenneth J.) that always gives you HOPE (James S.).

THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

Lt. Gen. A.P. Clark was confronted with his reincarnated self at his retirement luncheon. The remarkable imagery is explained on page 3.

You have much to look forward to: MITCHELL (Michael J.) HALL (Donald E.) with its HAMM (John A.), PARTRIDGE (Paul I.) on RICE (D.W., E.A., Jr. and C.J.), CURRY (Bruce L.) DUC (Michael V.) with ALMONDS (Todd L.), SALMON (Douglas B.), BURGERS (Ernest H., Jr.), LAMB (Forrest C.), RASPBERRYs (James D.), CHERRYs (James E.), fig NEWTONs (Richard Y., III), GRAHAM (Joey D.) crackers and after dinner MINTZ (David L.). And for a change you can go out to LUM's (Damon N.) or MCDONALD's (M. and A.R.).

In FAIRCHILD (Christopher L.) HALL (Eugene D.) you WILL (Brian D.) READ (Rands S.) the classics, FOSTER (M.D. and F.J.) your QUICK (William T.) WITT (Carlton M.) and extend the BORDERS (John K., Jr.) of your intellectual RANGE (Daniel T.). You'll become WISE (Michael L.) in ENGLISH (Tim J.) and FRENCH (John R., II) and be FUERST (Nickie J.) on the DEAN's (Garry C.) list!!

Another BOONE (Frederick S., Jr.) to the cadet is ARNOLD (James E.) HALL (Robert F.). Just a STONE's (W.G.)

throw from the dorms, opportunity KNOX (Kris) for the MERRYMAN (Pitt M.) with little MUNIE (Kim R.). There's T.V., dances, and movies, all for LITTLE (Robert C.) or no CASH (James W.).

But the highest AMES (Joel F.) in your CHASE (Michael L.) will be for the CHAPPELL (Mark S.). Whatever CREED (Bradley E.), Jew or GENTILE (Kenneth L.), your PARSONS (James D.) will welcome you to our TEMPLE (David J.). You may USHER (Steven C.) or sing CARELS (James B.), or meet JOHN WESLEY (Baker, Jr.) or join the MASONs (R.W., J.J., and L., Jr.). So as fast as your LEGGS (Steven K.) will CAREY (Guy) you, come to CHAPPELL (Mark S.).

Well, men of STEEL (Robert P.), the GIST (Stephen R.) of our STORIE (Gary A.) is that you're all CHARPIEs (K.G., Jr.). We say BRAVO (Jose R.) to you all, BARR (Samuel J.) none! You're the real MCCOY (John R.), the KINGs (M.O. and R.J., Jr.) of the HILL (John A.) and we'll be proud to CROW (Glenn L.) about you. And to those who LASH (Thomas A.) out at you or try to RECK (Steven F.) your image, we say, "PITOU (Michael C.) on you!!"

CHAPLAIN'S CHATTER

Chaplain James W. Chapman, Editor

Welcome to a new year and a new title for the Chapel Newspaper. In the past we have gone to press under the name "The COP." To those who read the small print, it stood for "Chapel Organization Paper." Unfortunately, few read the small print and we suffered under a number of misapprehensions. Some thought us to be a kind of ecclesiastical Police Gazette. Others associated the name with the term "Cop-out" which did nothing to enhance our image of hard-hitting, no-holds-barred journalism. So we have decided that a new name is in order. We have several ideas, but we feel that you cadets should be let in on the chance. So we invite you to bring in your suggestions.

As we did last year, we will have a contest every month. This month's puzzle will be to come up with an appropriate new name. If there is an obvious winner in the judgment of the editorial staff, next month's issue will fly under that masthead. However, if there are several winners, we will print them next month and ask for a vote. In either case, the one submitting the winning name will get our usual prize—a $10.00 gift certificate to the cadet book store.

To help you in your efforts, let me give a word or two about the philosophy of the paper. We try to serve two basic functions. First is satire. In any organization there is much that is worthy of jest. Sometimes we take ourselves too seriously. Often we deify things or systems in a modern form of idolatry. Satire has been, and is, the safety valve for such presumptions. It allows us the means to gently puncture some of our more inflated hot-air balloons. Ours is a gentle satire, that caricatures because it cares, lampoons because it loves. We are deeply committed to the pursuit of excellence here at the Academy. And so we feel that satire is one way to further that pursuit. To those to whom it may cause momentary pain, we ask your patience. It is done in fun and not malice.

The second function of the paper is to inform you about the Chapel program. The opposite column on this page gives you a run-down of September events. Page three introduces you to our Chapel staff with some of our tasks delineated. Page four will be our catch-all page with the contests, cadet articles and other assorted items. Page one will be reserved for our monthly blast of satire.

So enjoy us, but don't take us too seriously. Read us in the spirit in which we write. And now come up with a name which best symbolizes and captures the essence of what we're trying to do. Bring your suggestions in to either of the Chaplain's offices in Vandenberg, Room 2C17; or the New Dorm, Room 3A38.

FINISHED!

THE LAST MEAL

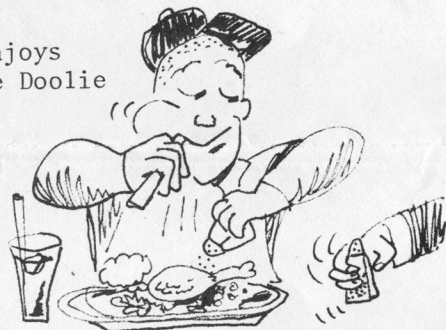

While waiting to go on as Lt. Gen. A.P. Clark II, Chris enjoys a delectable meal with Chaplain Chapman. Shortly after this the Doolie became the General for a few mind-boggling moments.

LISTEN, DAHLSTROM, NEXT TIME YOU DECIDE TO SKIP CHOW, GENERAL CLARK'S GONNA HEAR ABOUT IT!

DOOLIE DAHLSTROM'S DAY OF DISTINCTION

At 1120 hours, Sunday 28 July, C4C Christopher A. Dahlstrom of Lake Forest, Illinois was grovelling through the assault course like any other Doolie. But at the end of the run he was wisked off on a trip that would have made Cinderella's head spin. After a shower, he climbed aboard the Chapel's trusty Bronco and headed for the Officers' Club. There, after a sumptuous meal of eggs Benedict, filet mignon, chilled melon and iced tea, he donned the garb of none other than retiring Superintendent Lt. Gen. A.P. Clark.

Dahlstrom's remarkable resemblance to the former Soop was such that he was used in a skit pretending to reincarnate the General. His appearance was the highlight of the program as everyone, especially Gen. Clark was astounded by the incredible similarity. After the program and a brief visit with Gen. and Mrs. Clark, the dazzled doolie was piled back into the Bronco and began the dusty road back to reality. By 1405 hours, barely two hours since he left Jack's Valley, Chris was back there shouting "Hellfighters number 1" with the best of them. Few cadets have ever risen so fast and then fallen so far. But now, with a taste of three stars on his shoulders, who knows how far and how fast this falcon with the famous face may fly?

WHERE ARE THOSE FIRSTIES WHEN YOU WANT 'EM??!

DR. CHARLIE SHEDD

The September Discussion Group for Protestants will be Monday evening, 9 September. Dinner will be served in the Cockpit Lounge of Arnold Hall at 1830 hours. Dr. Shedd will speak on the topic "WHAT YOU ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT 35-4 BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK." If you're one of the few cadets who are concerned about the lack of girls at the Academy and the problems this engenders, then be with us on the 9th.

DECEMBER'S CONTEST

During choir tryouts this summer, we polled a number of the doolies on what the AFA football record would be this fall. The results are printed below.

11-0	--	1 vote
10-1	--	1 vote
9-2	--	16 votes
8-3	--	42 votes
7-4	--	39 votes
6-5	--	24 votes
5-6	--	9 votes
4-7	--	1 vote
3-8	--	1 vote

For December we want to refine it. Give us your estimate of the scores for each of the first nine games- Idaho, Oregon, Wyoming, Colorado, Tulane, Navy, Rutgers, BYU, and Army. The one who predicts the correct winner for all the games will win December's $10.00. In the event of a tie, the one whose scores are closest to the correct ones will win.

Your entries must be in to one of the Chaplain's offices by Friday, 13 September, at 1630 hours. Put on your football prognostication helmet and start thinking. May the luckiest man win!!
