

The Dodo

MARTHA MILITARY
PRESENTS THE
65 FALCONS

75bestalive.org

A CADET PUBLICATION FOR CADETS

AFCRP 190-4, OCT 65

No. 10

the Dodo Staff!

The Coach - Capt. Turner

The Team:

John McFalls - Ed.
Dick Watson - Ass Ed.
Bob Resling - Art
D.Y. Thompson - Photo

Jim Love - Fenwick
Dave Galas - M. Military
Mike Freeborn - Typ
Jeff Aykroyd - Pub.

Creation:
Gene Rose
Terry Schmidt
Dick Voll
Bob Hoh
John Gnall
Mark Danney
Rocky Gaines
Don Risher
And a Cast of Thousands

What Kind of Man Reads DODO?

He's a man just like you and me -- dashing , good-looking, a regular man about the terrazo. Blessed with a vigor and vitality unequaled in our world, he accomplishes his tasks with a unity of purpose (to kill) a persistence (never say die) that causes many a heart to quiver in campuses across this nation. Good looking shoulder pads, coupled with a striking jersey make him stand out in every crowd. He is a man of the world, an athlete, a Cadet, a flyboy, and a bridge player extraordinaire. Every woman wants to own such a man. Above all, he is a happy Dodo reader. Be the first in your crowd to emulate this personification of all that is good. Join the living, feeling, exciting world -- read Dodo.

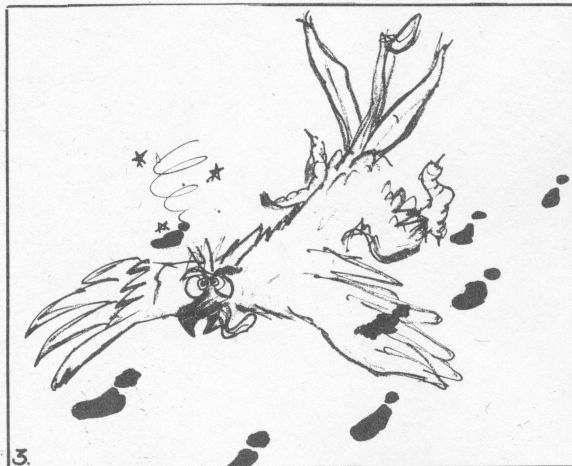

Most of our readers are probably familiar with the story of Fenwick Falcon at the Air Force Academy by Carlson and Seegmiller. We, of the Dodo, offer for your intellectual enjoyment, the second in the series of Fenwick's adventures.

FENWICK FALCON at a FOOTBALL GAME

Fenwick was reading the bulletin board. He saw on the schedule for the week that there was a big football game on Saturday. Fenwick had always dreamed of playing football. But always the coaches laughed at him when he tried out for end. He had no hands.

Still Fenwick loved football. He could not help himself, so he jumped into the air. Fenwick was excited.

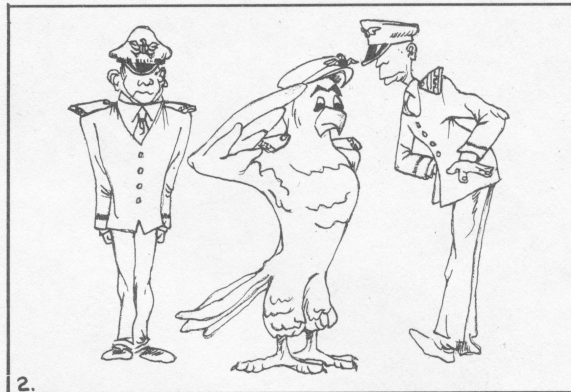

It came time to run off the field. Fenwick tried to run. He tripped on his wings and fell. The other cadets merely said, "Heyup! Heyup!" As they ran off the field they made sure to step on Fenwick.

Fenwick was hurting.

Soon it was half-time. Fenwick hurried up the stairs to Gate Number 2. He was going to meet a girl. She was called a "blind date", but she still could see. When Fenwick saw her, he felt a warm glow all over.

His date was astonished. She was not happy to go out with a falcon. Fenwick was not worried. He could show her that evening at the Cadet Club.

Finally Saturday came. The cadets pushed and shoved onto the buses. Soon it was time to march on. Fenwick's tail twitched with excitement.

Fenwick was so excited that he forgot to watch the cheerleader. When the other cadets said, "UIS!A!F!A!", Fenwick saluted. He felt bad and the other cadets felt worse.

Fenwick was a very embarrassed bird.

Fenwick's heart pounded as he watched the game. He chirped loudly when it came time to cheer. Although he had checked off all the cheers he forgot the one called, "Air Force Cadets-Go". All that was heard in the silence was a loud tweet, "Go".

The cadets were very disappointed with Fenwick.

Fenwick was happy at the Club. He found that he could do the "bird" better than any of the other cadets. But the others were doing the jerk.

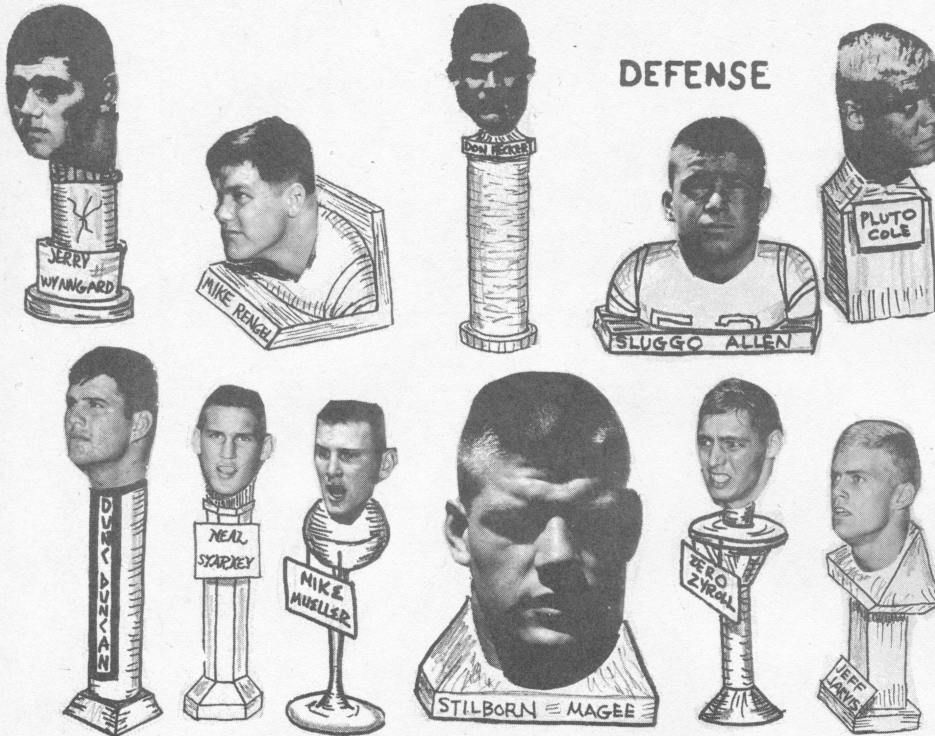

Then Fenwick felt out of it.

Soon he could not find his date. So he ordered four "Falcon Specials" and danced with other cadets' dates. Fenwick was reeling and rocking.

The birds of Hawkville would have been proud of Fenwick that day.

MARtha MILITARY PRESENTS

the FALCON HALL OF FAME

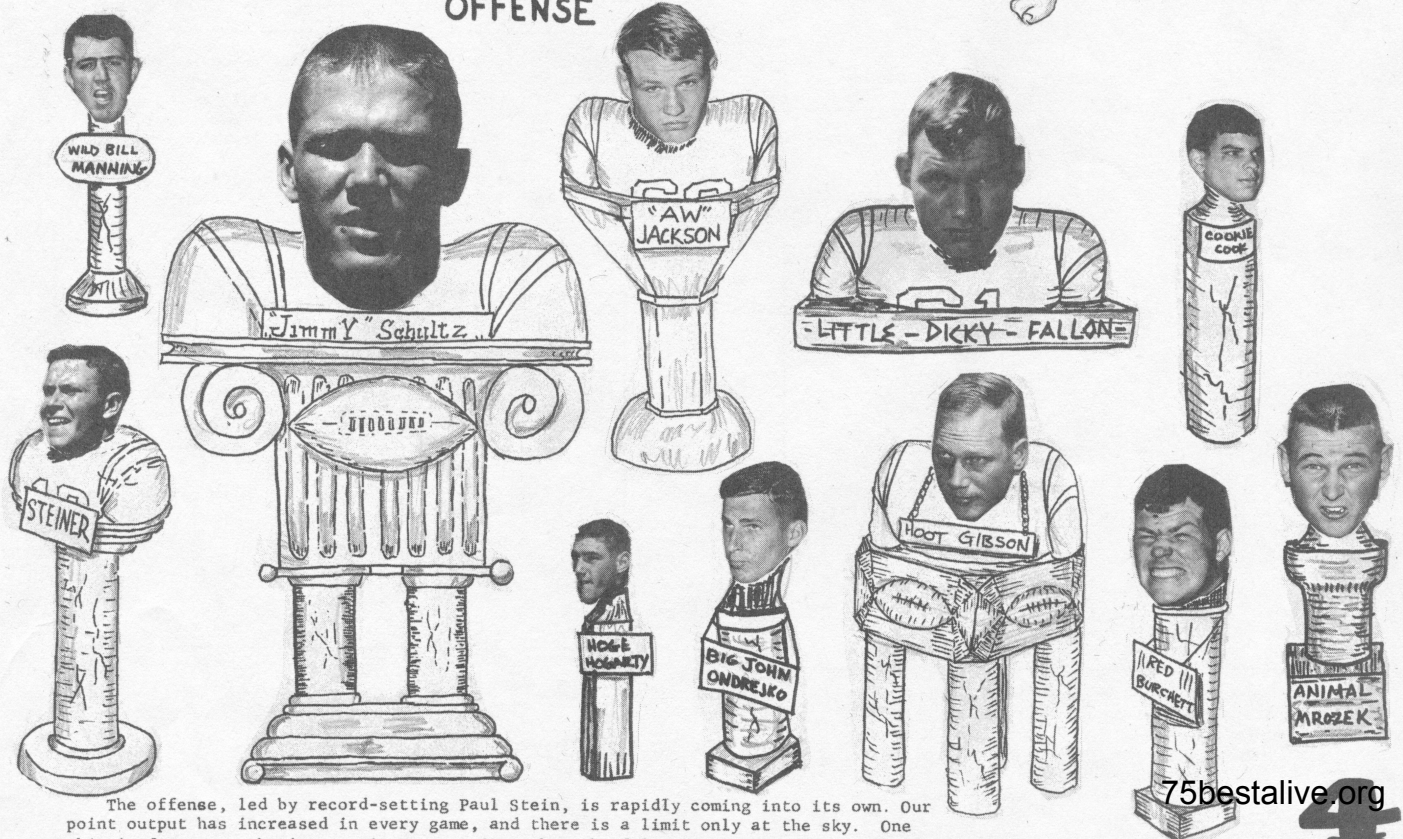

DEFENSE

Starting the season somewhat youthful and inexperienced, the Falcon defense has matured fast into a formidable, determined unit when the group realized its capabilities in mowing down Cornhuskers. Spurred on by the young blood from the class of '68 the defensive team is looking forward to future opportunities to prove their own skill. With unequalled spirit and drive they are prepared to stop both balls and bods. M.M. wishes them the best of luck in all their endeavors.

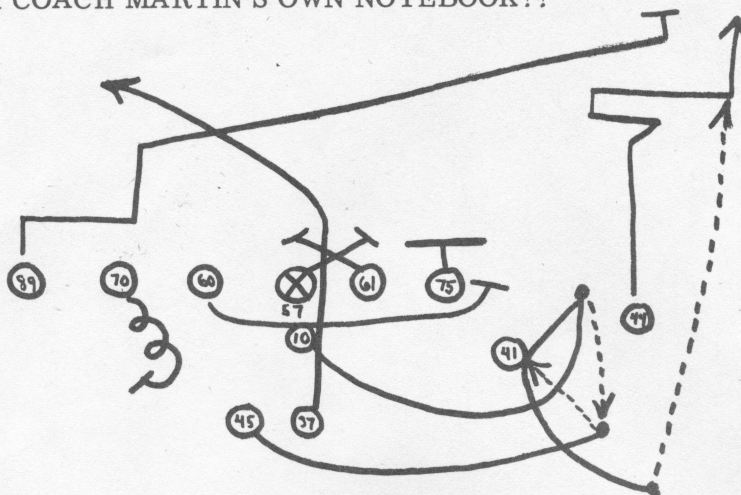

OFFENSE

The offense, led by record-setting Paul Stein, is rapidly coming into its own. Our point output has increased in every game, and there is a limit only at the sky. One thing's for sure--they're scoring more points than the falcon. Martha Military wants them all to stay tough and even surpass that unforgettable 69.....to 0 win of a few years back.

DODO EXCLUSIVE!!

SELECTED PLAYS FROM COACH MARTIN'S OWN NOTEBOOK!!

CONFIDENTIAL

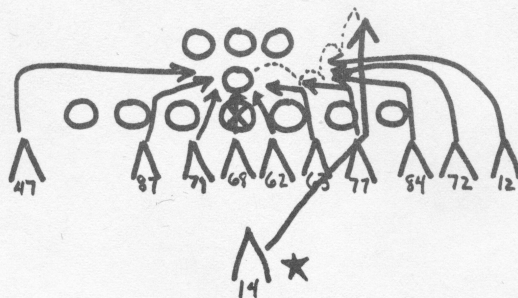

Off Tackle Guard Pull 31 Right Sweep Hand-Off Pass.

Description: Stein (10) takes snap from Gibson(57), pivots, and hands off to Ondrejko (37) who scampers 41 yards untouched with team's dirty laundry. Meanwhile, Stein (10), who still has the ball, rolls right, runs through the slot, and laterals back to Cook (45), who flips the ball to Manning (41). Manning (41), hands off to Stein (10), who swings back into the backfield and passes downfield to Hogle (44), who has run a clever pass pattern. Hogle (44) scores, naturally.

Blocking Assignments: Gibson (57) and Fallon (61) cross. Each wipes out an opposing guard and linebacker. Mrojek (75) forms a one-man wall for pass protection. Jackson (60) pulls and annihilates opposing left defensive end. Burchett (70) removes helmet, circles twice, waving hair in opponent's face, then drops back for pass protection. Hogarty, (89) runs deceptive, luring pass pattern, and is in position to block for Hogle (44).

Criticism: None

Remarks: Very effective against weak teams, such as Loretto Heights, UCLA, CWC.

CONFIDENTIAL

Ten-One Red Dog Blitz.

Description: The entire line: Hayden (81), Zagzebski (78), Fischer (64), Cole (77), Wyngard (84), Macgee (68), Hinson (50), Jarvis (27), Zyrol (12), Starkey (47), converges on the opposing quarterback, and smashes him simultaneously. The resounding impact causes the ball to be squirted high into the air. At this instant, Duncan (14) slips through the line, picks off the ball and covers the remaining yardage in record time for the score.

Criticism: None.

Remarks: This play must not, under any circumstances, be released to the public. We will practice it only in the sanctity of the southwest shower room near the varsity lockers after taps on Wednesday nights.

75bestalive.org

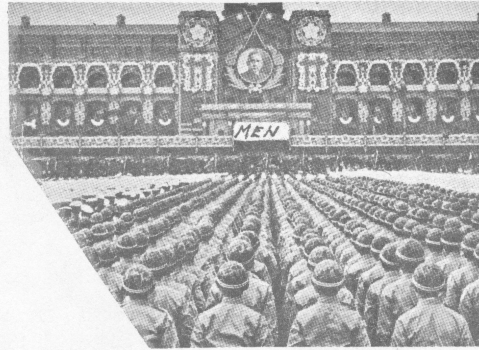

HEY MOMMY!!! Wanna
see my hamster
disapear??

THE Doods Dots & Doodles

NOW I'M JUST Gonna
TURN around,

A farmer was driving past an insane asylum with a truck load of fertilizer.

An inmate called out:

"What are you hauling there?"

"Fertilizer," replied the farmer.

"What are you going to do with it?"

"Put it on my strawberries."

"You ought to live here. We get sugar & cream on ours."

"Had to shoot my dog last night."
"Was he mad?"
"Well, he wasn't exactly pleased about it."

Wee Willie was walking with Wanda, his brand new girl, on the way home from school. Both were eight years old.

"Wanda," said Wee Willie, with worshipping eyes, "you're the first girl I ever loved."

"Dammit!" cried little Wanda, "I've drawn another amateur!"

A metallurgist is a man who can take one look at a platinum and tell whether she's a virgin metal or a common ore.

"I heard you've been to a school for stuttering. Did it cure you?"

"Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers."

"Why that's wonderful."

"Yes, but it's h-h-hard to work into an ordinary c-c-conversation."

Two roosters were caught in a deluge of rain. One ran for the coop and the other made a duck under the porch.

Did you hear the one about the All-American tomcat who made forty-nine yards in one night?

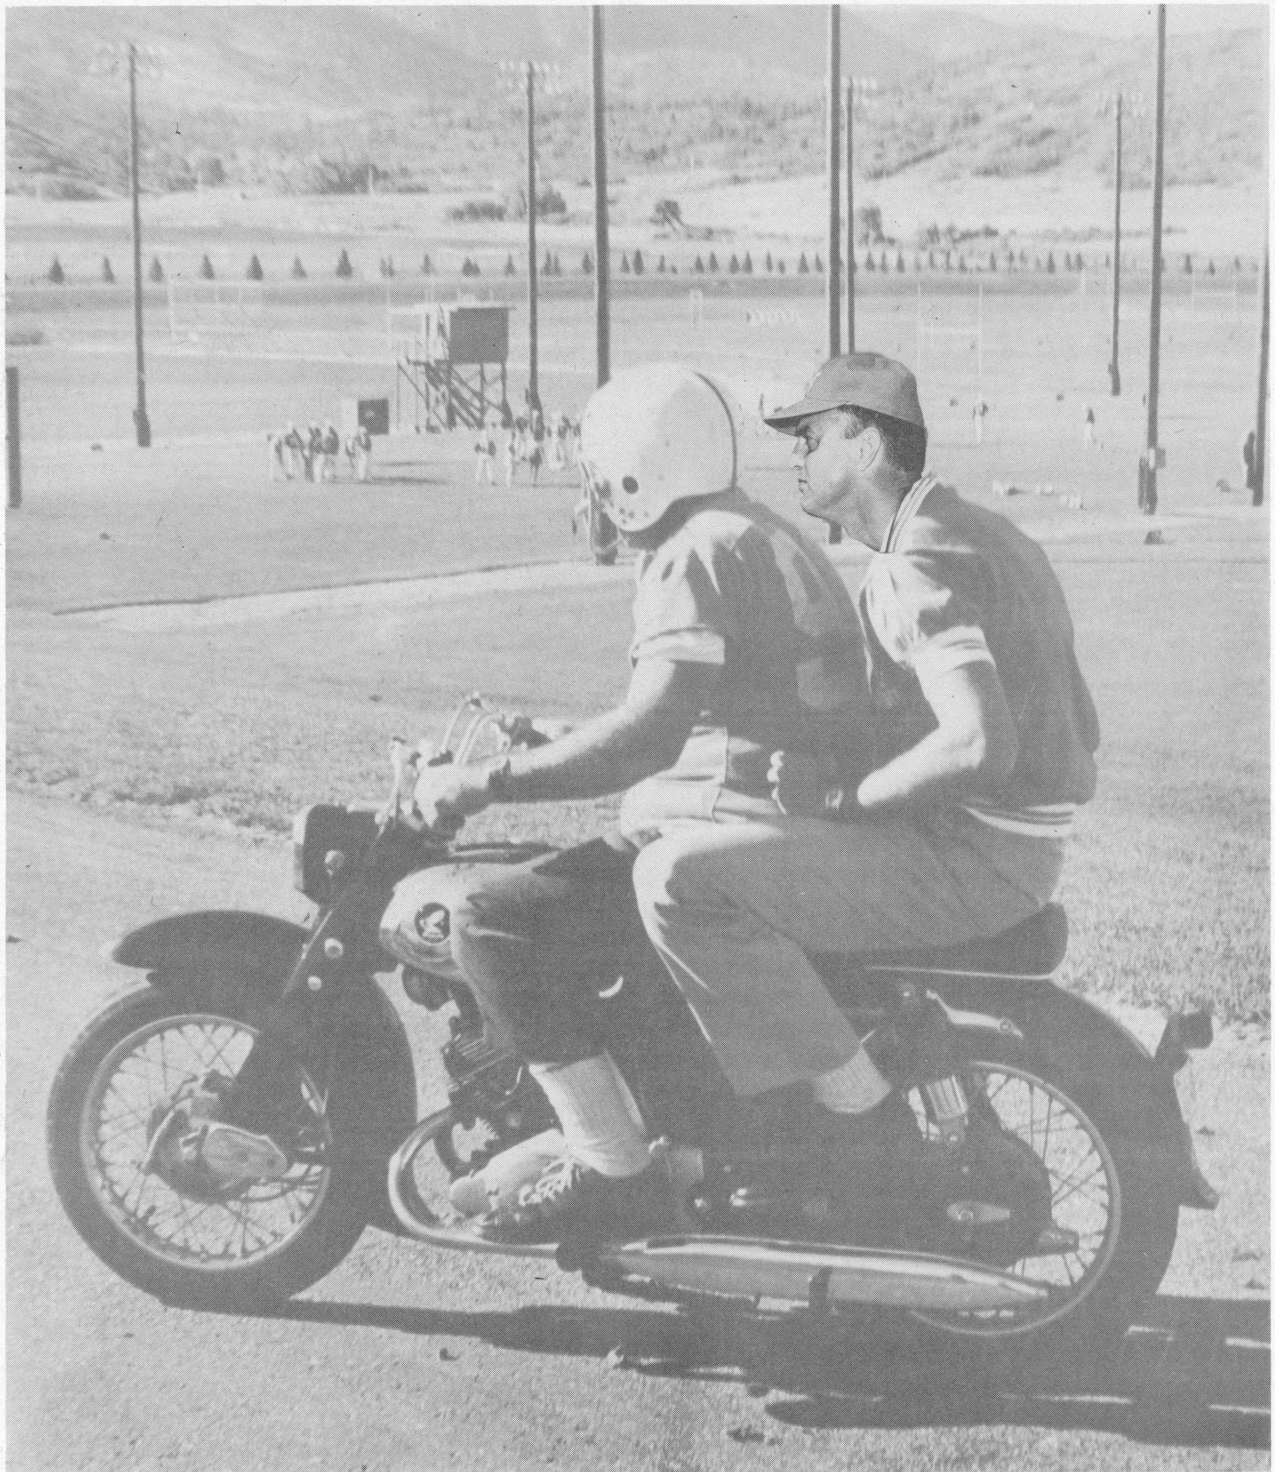

The Texan and his wife, attending an oilmen's convention, were in their hotel room, dressing. The wife suddenly discovered she had left her girdle at home and sent her husband out to buy a replacement. He walked in to a lingerie store and told the clerk what he wanted. "Do you wanna Playtex?"

"Not now—just give me the girdle."

7

YOU MEET THE NICEST PEOPLE ON A HUMDA

It's largely a matter of taste (do you or don't you have any). Whether for a Sunday afternoon sightseeing tour of the North Road, a quick zip down to the community shopping center, or just normal weekday transportation between Colorado Springs and Denver, you will find your Humda ideally suited for any purpose. Put a little speed and excitement into your life, amaze the hangers on, own and drive one all your own. Be the cadet in your alcove with the greatest pickup ever -- get a Humda today.

HUMDA

75bestalive.org