USAFA WINS AF-NAVY MARCH-ON FOR SECOND STRAIGHT YEAR

(see story on page 2.)

Sure wish A. Ross Perot hadn't gotten us into this!

Wonder what I'll look like in a crewcut?

Wonder why 12 AF players were introduced in the starting line-up?

THE DODO (dō'- dō) an informal Cadet paper, of the cadets, by the cadets, and for the cadets

The Dodo would like to take this opportunity to welcome the members of the Wing back "home!" This year we will continue to satirize, humorize, and otherwise poke fun in general at our fine institution, and its administration by the omnipotent, anonymous "THEY."

For those of you who got a look at the U.S. Air Force this summer, we hope that the first few weeks of classes have helped ease the transition back into the AFAAF*

To the Class of 1975, may your last year be a short one. To the Class of 1976 may your last two years be short ones. To the Class of 1977, may your last year be a short one. To the Class of 1978, well what can we say? You only have four years left...left...LEFT, RIGHT, LEFT! GET IN STEP! QUIT BOUNCING MISTER!

*Air Force Academy Air Force

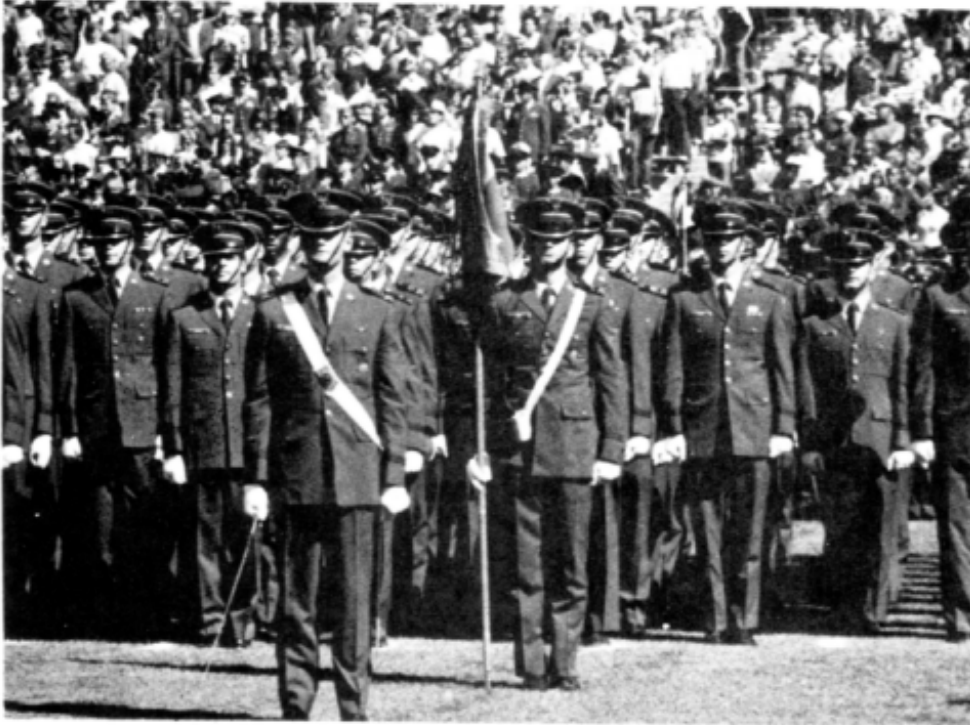

Oh, you'll have to excuse me. Those of us who had the Double-Bangers this summer have a little rougher time getting accustomed to the academic year again than the rest of you. Time heals all wounds, though.

So sit back and enjoy our premier issue of the 1974-1975 academic year. If you like it, let us know. If you don't like it, please don't throw it in the trash. The least you can do is leave it in the latrine so the paper won't go to waste.

Incidentally, are you feeling down? frustrated? or even totally emasculated? Would you like a somewhat non-violent outlet for your feelings? Well then, the Dodo has a spot for you! Send your name, class, squadron, and IQ, along with a stamped, self-addressed government messenger envelope to Mike Witherspoon in CS-21 and we'll be getting in touch with you. — Spooover

AFA WALKS OFF WITH MARCH-ON!!

OUTSTANDING
AFA CADET
PERFORMANCE

This type of discipline and determination kept the Middies from stepping ahead during the annual inter-service rivalry

The AF Cadet Wing, led by its seasoned commander, Bentley Rayburn, literally marched the USNA Midshipmen off the field in the annual AFA-USNA March-On last Saturday at USAFA. A capacity crowd of over 50,000 watched the Cadet Wing whip the Middies soundly for the second straight year.

The Falcons dominated drill from the first "Forward March" to the last "Squadron Halt." Stymied and frustrated by a tough AFA Element Leader rank, the Middies were unable to step off on the left foot for the entire afternoon. Perhaps the most outstanding performance of the day was put in by the A Flight Guide. Only a sophomore who played little as a freshman last year, Cadet Third Class Bill Pressansmoke gained a starting berth this season and performed two right turn marches, a guide on-line and post without a flaw.

Although Navy did mount a strong Present Arms during the National Anthem, they were unable to overcome the mighty About Face and Double Time March of the AF Cadets. The Cadets led at USAFA Pre-Game by a wide margin.

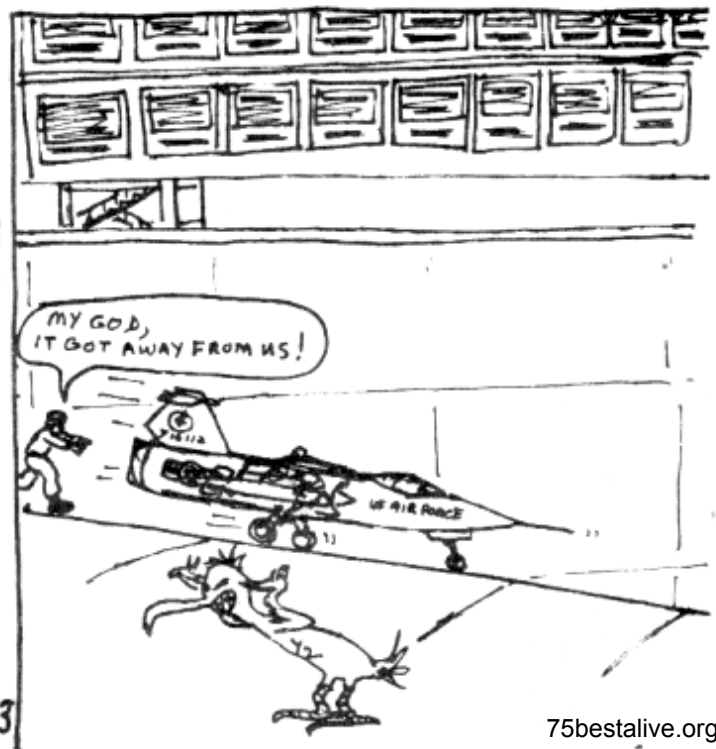

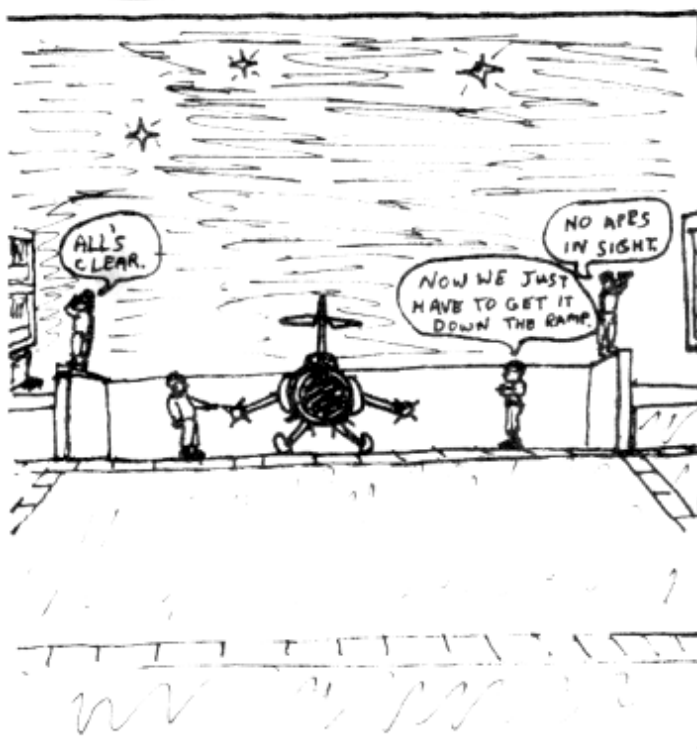

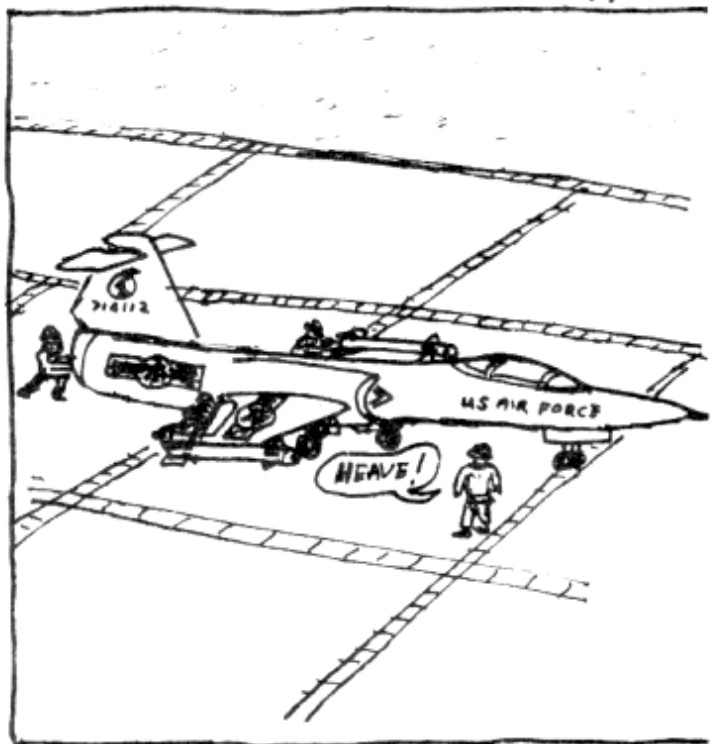

This March-On meant a great deal to the USAFA Cadet Wing as it was the last time they were to be marching under the leadership of retiring mentor, CMSgt. Garrett. When asked why the Wing was in such good cadence, Cadet Rayburn answered, "We wanted to win one for the Chief."

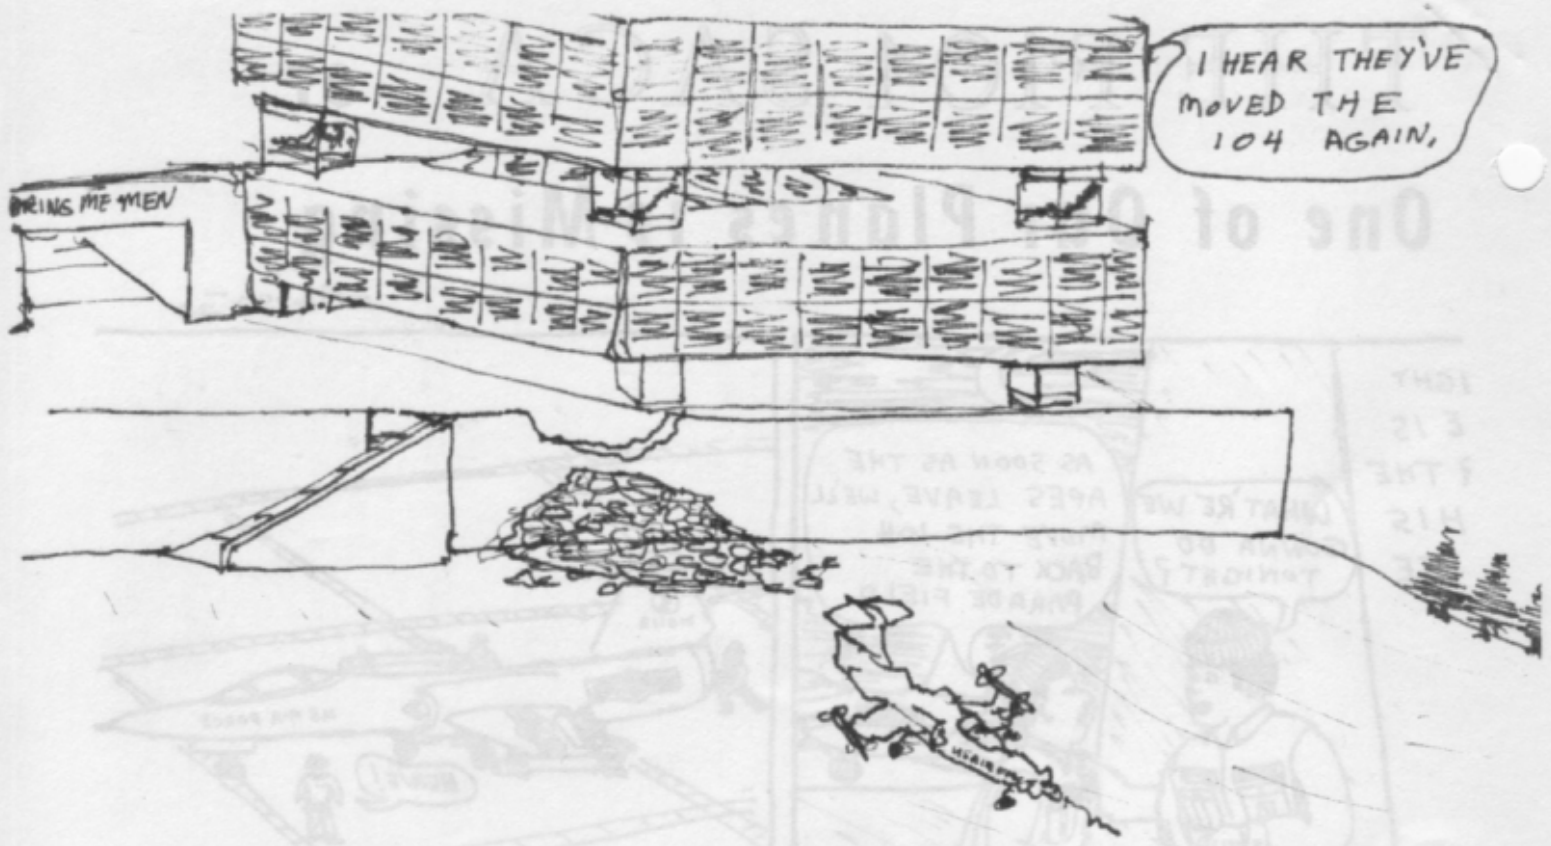

The final few drum beats saw the Middies fall short in their final attempt to score drill points, as successive penalties for extensive armswing and poor dress caught them with their anchors down. The AF Cadet Wing won by a large margin.
