

Illustrator Arnold Friberg produced these concept sketches, including an original crest, for Cecil B. DeMille, who had been contracted by the Air Force to design distinctive cadet uniforms for the fledgling Air Force Academy. Though never adopted, the crest design provides a unique historical opportunity to commemorate the 50th reunion of the Class of 1975.

